Teacher Education Code 290-3-3-.01(34)

(34) Recent P-12 Experiences Requirement.

(a) Faculty who teach methods courses or supervise interns for teaching field programs and who have not been employed in a P-12 setting within the most recent five-year period shall use either of two options to meet the professional experience requirement:

1. Substitute teach, co-teach, or guest teach in an appropriate P-12 classroom.
2. Teach methods courses that include model lessons or demonstration classes in P-12 schools.

(b) At a minimum, faculty who supervise interns for instructional support programs and who have not been employed in a P-12 setting with the most recent five-year period shall shadow a highly effective P-12 practitioner in the area of instructional support for at least 10 clock hours per semester. This requirement is effective spring semester 2010.
