

Feb. 11, 2010

University of North Alabama
One Harrison Plaza
Florence, AL 35632-0001
800-TALK-UNA
www.una.edu

HISTORY COMPETITION AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

FLORENCE, Ala. – Four local high school students were awarded University of North Alabama scholarships for their performance in the Tennessee Valley Historical Society History Scholarship Competition today. Winners of the junior-senior scholarship competition were:

- First place – Carl Parasaliti Jr. of Florence High School
- Second place – Kyle Black of Rogers High School and Brittney Davis of Cherokee High School
- Third Place – John Howard of Ardmore High School

Parasaliti received a $750 UNA scholarship, Black and Davis each received a $500 scholarship, and Howard received a $250 scholarship.

The history competition also included a Big Brain team and individual oral contest for all high-school-age students, grades 9-12. The individual winner of the Big Brain competition was Ben Rhinehart of Ardmore High School. Team winners were Lexington High School in first place, Wilson High School in second and Cherokee High School in third.

###