

collier library

Collier Library may also be considered new this year because of the modern extension. The new addition has doubled the library's capacity of last year. The 60,000-volume library is air-conditioned and is one of the best libraries for colleges of this size and type in the South.