Twenty-Four Volumes In New Edition

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA IS OF IMMEASURABLE WORTH

Twenty-four volumes of the 14th edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica have been recently received by S. T. C. library, Miss Emerson states. The books are bound in dark red library buckram.

Features noted in the new volumes are: Long signed articles by specialists with excellent bibliography appended to most articles; many excellent illustrations, both in the text and in black and white plates and some colored plates; inclusion of many smaller subjects not separately treated in earlier editions and inclusion of biographical articles on persons still living; very detailed index of small subjects; almost equal to up-to-date-ness of all parts of the alphabet due to a nearly simultaneous completion and publication.
