

Fulbright Canada Program

We are excited to announce that the 2020-2021 Fulbright Killam Fellowships Program Open Competition for undergraduate students is now open! Application deadline is January 31, 2021!

The Killam Fellowships Program is an excellent opportunity for American students to spend one semester or a full academic year studying at a university in Canada.

Students may participate in the program either as a:

- Direct Exchange Student (registering at their home university, paying their home fees, and attending the host university as an exchange visitor). Applicants interested in the direct exchange program must be registered at one of the participating American universities and be planning to visit one of the participating Canadian universities.
- Self-placed visiting student- Open Competition (applying for and registering at the host university, and paying host tuition fees).

The award carries a value of $5,000 US per semester, and an allowance to offset the cost of health insurance. Additional benefits include two enrichment seminars held in Ottawa, ON (Fall) and Washington, DC (Spring)- if the pandemic conditions allow it.

Information on the application process available here.

If you have any questions about the program or the application process, please contact info@fulbright.ca

Please note that in light of the current pandemic the program will take place in Canada, later next year, should the conditions allow it.
