About the University of North Alabama

The University of North Alabama occupies a beautiful historic campus of over 100 acres located just north of the Tennessee River in the metropolitan Shoals Area of Northwest Alabama. First established in 1830 as LaGrange College, the University became in 1872 the first state-supported teachers' college south of the Ohio River and one of the first coed colleges in the nation. With over 7,000 students, the University of North Alabama offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, and Nursing.
