February 9, 2024: The Nomination Form, with accompanying documentation, must be submitted to the Chair of the nominee's department
February 16, 2024: The Nomination Form, with accompanying documentation, must be submitted to the Dean of the nominee's college
February 23, 2024: The Nomination Form, with accompanying documentation, must be submitted to the Office of Academic Affairs via email with PDF attachment.
(smcmillan@una.edu)
April 22, 2024: Awards Gala
2. Self-nominations are encouraged. Nominations may also be received by students, faculty members, administrators and/or alumni. All UNA full-time faculty are eligible for the award.
3. The award will be made for excellence in teaching. A list of no more than three (3) finalists will be based on a preliminary screening of materials submitted with the nomination. In February, members of the selection committee will: visit the finalists' classes, interview the finalists and their colleagues, review their class Canvas page for a limited time, and poll the students in the finalists' classes. Classroom visits will occur February 5-16, 2024. PLEASE NOTE: Access to the nominee's Canvas course page is given by ETS. The committee chair will need to email Educational Technology Services, ets@una.edu, and request that the committee members be added to the teaching nominees' Canvas courses as students. The committee chair will also need to provide the email addresses of all committee members who will need access to the nominee's online course Canvas page to review.
4. The recipient will receive:
 - A. There will be an acrylic award given to each recipient
 - B. The name of the recipient will be displayed on a permanent plaque
 - C. The recipient of the award will receive a $750 faculty development grant
 - D. The recipient will be featured in Profiles in Excellence
 - E. The recipient will be eligible to attend the annual International Conference on College Teaching and Learning and represent UNA as the campus award winner, or an alternate conference approved by the college dean and Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs.
5. The award will be presented by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University Awards Gala (April 22, 2024).
6. No member of the Selection Committee will be eligible for an award while serving on the committee.
7. No faculty member may receive the Outstanding Teaching Award more than once during a 10-year period.
