College of Education and Human Sciences Student Ambassador Application

Application for the Academic Year 2018-2019

The College of Education and Human Sciences Student Ambassadors are an elite group of students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in academics and student leadership. Ambassadors will serve as official hosts and hostesses, student recruitment agents, mentors, and student advisors to the Dean. They will assist with student recruitment, speak to community and university groups, and represent the College at receptions and meetings.

Serving as an Ambassador is an honor and a distinction. In order to be considered, applicants must:

- Be a declared major in the College of Education and Human Sciences
- Maintain a minimum overall 2.75 GPA
- Provide one letter of recommendation from a faculty member within the COEHS
- Be able to commit to at least one year of service (June-May)
- Commit to serving 40 University event hours per year term (20 each semester)
- Attend mandatory monthly meetings – second Tuesday of each month at 7:15 am
- Not be involved in student teaching or an internship during the year commitment
- Be in good standing with the university and free of any disciplinary actions
- Be available for service assignments at daytime, evening, and weekend events
- Attend all scheduled meetings, retreats, and mandatory events (First meeting is May 8th 4:00 Stevens RM 418)
- Demonstrate a strong level of commitment to programs and initiatives within the COEHS and UNA through student participation and leadership

Application Deadline: 12:00 pm on March 23th Stevens Hall Suite 515

Ambassador Auditions will be held April 20th. Qualified students will be contacted.

By signing this form, I attest that the information I have provided is true and accurate. I understand that providing false or erroneous information will disqualify me from the Student Ambassador selection process and/or removal from the Student Ambassador program should I be selected. I have read and understand the responsibilities of the College of Education and Human Sciences Ambassadors program and agree to abide by all terms. I further understand that although being a part of the Ambassadors program is voluntary that once I am accepted and agree to become an ambassador that I must follow the rules, honor my commitment, and attend all training sessions and that failure to actively participate in the Ambassadors program will result in my removal from the program. Failure to maintain enrollment in the College of Education or the minimum grade point level required to be eligible for consideration, as well as my participation in activities that could discredit the college, will also nullify my eligibility to remain a student ambassador.
