GRADING SCALE:
Your letter grade is determined using the grade distribution that follows. Your percentage is found by dividing your total points by the total points available. This percentage is then matched to a letter grade. You can determine your standing in the class at any point in the semester by tracking your points and the total points to date.

CLASS ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:
Students are expected to complete chapter readings, participate in classroom discussions of the topics, and do a series of skill-building assignments/projects. Please check Angel for any course updates or communications from the instructor. The university absence policy applies.

EXAMS AND PROJECTS:
The online chapter exams will consist of multiple choice questions taken from the textbook test bank. These exams test understanding of communications concepts. The projects evaluate how well students can apply those concepts. Please remember that these are individual exams and no additional outside help is allowed. The course schedule reflects the timing of these exams, so please plan accordingly. After you complete your exam, please do not discuss the exam with anyone until after the exam “window” is closed.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS:
There will be no make-up exams unless approved by the instructor in advance or due to extenuating circumstances (as determined by the instructor). The exam and assignment due dates will be strictly followed. If you are going to have a problem with one of the exam dates or due dates, please let the instructor know in advance.

TEACHING AND LEARNING PARTNERSHIP:
Teaching and learning is a partnership between faculty and students. I will fulfill my partnership obligations by being prepared for every class meeting, serving as an advisor, consultant, mentor and providing clarifications of difficult or confusing concepts.
You will fulfill your partnership obligations by being prepared for each class meeting and being a fully participative, responsive, working class member.

ACADEMIC HONESTY—UNIVERSITY POLICY:
Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on exam, paper or project, failure in course; and/or expulsion from the University. For more information refer to the "Academic Dishonesty" policy in the University Undergraduate Program.

ADA ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT—UNIVERSITY POLICY:
In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the University offers reasonable accommodations to students with eligible documented learning, physical and/or psychological disabilities. Under Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Amendment Act of 2008, a disability is defined as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities as compared to an average person in the population. It is the responsibility of the student to contact Disability Support Services to initiate the process to develop an accommodation plan. This accommodation plan will not be applied retroactively. Appropriate, reasonable accommodations will be made to allow each student to meet course requirements, but no fundamental or substantial alteration of academic standards will be made. Students needing assistance should contact Disability Support Services (256-765-4214).

EMAIL DROP PROCEDURE—UNIVERSITY POLICY:
Any student wishing to drop a class may logon to their secure UNA email account and send an email to their instructor of record and a copy of the email to the Registrar’s Office at registrar@una.edu. This will be valid for online courses as well as regular courses. The email MUST come from the student's UNA portal account. The Registrar's Office will officially drop a student from the course after receiving a response from the instructor which includes permission to drop and their grade of W, WP, or WF. In the email, be sure that you include your full name, UNA ID number, course section and 5 digit course registration code.
