Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2018-19.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

What are CIP Codes?

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2018-19. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education—Chemistry" category.

>> Teacher Training

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

All initial candidates complete three courses for a total nine hours that have as their only focus helping the candidates understand their roles and responsibilities as the primary classroom teacher for students with disabilities. These courses include: an introductory or survey course where the emphasis is on characteristics and eligibility for services; a classroom management course that focuses on theory and application of management strategies and applied behavior analysis; and a course where candidates study research-based accommodations and modifications to ensure they have the skills to teach students with disabilities who may be in the P-6 classroom. Throughout the elementary and secondary education programs, initial candidates are taught strategies to assist them in all core content areas, as well as assessment and assistive technology. All teacher candidates take courses which have components that focus on working with students with disabilities. These courses have the teacher candidates create activities and lesson plans where the needs of these students are met.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

In the introductory course titled Introduction to Students with Exceptional Learning Needs candidates learn the components of IEPs; read real IEPs and sometimes have a quiz on IEPs.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

In the undergraduate elementary and secondary education programs, all teacher candidates take courses which have components that focus on working with culturally and linguistically diverse students. These courses have the teacher candidates create activities and lesson plans where the needs of English language learners are met. At the elementary level, the primary course for this is Teaching the Language Arts. At the secondary level, the two primary courses for this are Materials and Methods of High School Teaching and Principles of High School Education. Both elementary and secondary teacher candidates also take Human Growth and Development, which has a component where the students discuss the needs of culturally and linguistically diverse students.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

Initial candidates take four courses for a total of fifteen credit hours plus a six hour specialized internship and earn dual certification in both elementary and collaborative teacher special education (K-6). Additionally, these candidates complete a six-week internship with a special education teacher in an elementary school setting.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

In addition to the introductory course which introduces IEPs, initial candidates take one three hour course titled EEX 450 Special Education Law which includes collaborating with K-6 SPED teachers using professional ethics to create IEPs. Also, during the six week internship, students are expected to be involved in IEP development using state networking system and participate in an IEP meeting.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

All initial level teacher candidates take courses which have components that focus on working with culturally and linguistically diverse students. These courses have the teacher candidates create activities and lesson plans where the needs of English language learners are met. At the elementary (K-6) level where our collaborative certification is offered, the primary course for this is Teaching the Language Arts.
