

Online Learning/Technology Conference

Wednesday, March 11, 2015

	Stevens Hall Room 101	Stevens Hall Room 102	Stevens Hall Room 104
9 a.m.	Distance Learning Delivery to Millennials: Professor and Student Perspectives Tammy Winner/Erick Hughes	Incorporating Digital Instruction and Video Conferencing into your Classroom Derek Malone	Simple and Effective Methods to Help Your Students Evaluate Peer-Reviewed Literature Eric O'Neal
10 a.m.	Distance Learning Delivery to Millennials: Professor and Student Perspectives Tammy Winner/Eric Hughes	Incorporating Digital Instruction and Video Conferencing into your Classroom Derek Malone	Simple and Effective Methods to Help Your Students Evaluate Peer-Reviewed Literature Eric O'Neal
11 a.m.	Increasing Information Literacy and Cultural Competence Through Structured and Creative Writing Assignments Andrea Hunt/Brittney Cooper	Using Student-Created Memes in the Classroom Gary Padgett/Sarah Swafford	The Journey from Traditional to Online Teacher: Reconciling the Conflicts and Developing a Philosophy Thomas Taylor
Noon	LUNCH pick up in LRC
1 p.m.	Increasing Information Literacy and Cultural Competence Through Structured and Creative Writing Assignments Andrea Hunt/Brittney Cooper	Using Student-Created Memes in the Classroom Gary Padgett/Sarah Swafford	Meeting Diverse Student Needs in Hybrid and Online Courses Through Collaborative and Innovative Teaching Ideas Jana Beaver/Natasha Lindsey
2 p.m.			Applying the QEP Rubric to Grading Assignments in Canvas Lisa Keys-Mathews