2013-2014 SNAP (Food Stamp) Verification Worksheet

Federal Student Aid Programs

Your 2013-2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, the financial aid administrator at your school will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You (and at least one parent, if you are a dependent student) must complete and sign this worksheet and submit to the Office of Student Financial Services.

SNAP (Food Stamps) Reported

By signing below, you are certifying that someone in the student’s household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during the 2011 or 2012 calendar years.

☐ One of the persons listed on the 13-14 FAFSA as a member of student’s household received SNAP benefits in 2011 or 2012. If asked by the student’s school, I will provide documentation of the receipt of SNAP benefits during 2011 and/or 2012.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2011 or 2012.

By signing this worksheet, I (we) certify that all of the information reported on this worksheet is complete and correct. If the student is a dependent, at least one parent must sign.
