

Kenneth “Ken” Kitts

Dr. Kitts earned a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Appalachian State University in 1985 and received a master’s degree at the university in 1987 before getting a Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina in 1995. Kitts also received certificates from Harvard University’s Institute for Educational Management and South Carolina’s Executive Institute. A Waynesville, N.C., native; Dr. Kitts has more than 25 years of university-level teaching and over 15 years of administrative experience. He went to University of North Carolina Pembroke in early 2011 as provost and vice chancellor of the Office of Academic Affairs from Francis Marion University in Florence, S.C., where he had served since 1987. Kitts currently serves as President at University of North Alabama.