

Anna Gongre

Department: Honors College

Major(s): Professional Writing, Public Relations GPA: 3.92

Campus Involvement: Student for Life Member, Mentor for the Honors Mentor Program, Sigma Tau Delta Member, Honors Student Organization Member.

Job Duties & Responsibilities: Anna is a Student Worker for the Honors College. She is responsible for assisting with general office help, managing excel spreadsheets, assisting with recruiting, and providing tour guides. When needed, she provides assistance with office communications, event planning, and social media advertising. She designs social media posts and event posters for the Honors College. She shows up to work on time, and is always willing to help out anyway possible. She has a great work ethic. Anna has become an invaluable asset, and has helped made the transition from Honors Program to Honors College as smooth as possible.

Career Goals: The experiences that Anna has gained from working for the Honors College have helped to prepare her for her career in a professional field. She has become a great recruiter, and has developed amazing leadership skills. She believes that after graduation, she will be completely and confidently prepared for the professional world.