

Bailey Roberson

Department: Housing and Residence Life

Major(s): Spanish (Commerce), Project Management GPA: 3.46

Campus Involvement: Study Abroad Spain, Honors College Member, Alpha Gamma Delta Member.

Job Duties & Responsibilities: Bailey works for the Office of Housing and Resident Life as a Resident Advisor. She is responsible for ensuring safe, inclusive, and welcome living spaces. Her job duties include connecting with all students to create and promote the best first year possible and responding to crisis. It is also her responsibility to report objective and mandatory information as needed. She has been able to strategically, effectively, and successfully a strong community with her peers at Mattielou Hall. Bailey assists with coordinating day-to-day seniority tasks, helps handle angry and irate parents, and investigates issues happening in other resident halls. Her amazing leadership skills has been a great example for other RAs.

Career Goals: Bailey is known to be self-motivated, and a great problem solver. Her experience while working as a Residential Advisor has taught her to be a valuable member of a functioning team. She has developed skills such as patience, understanding others, and knowing the importance of creating relationships/networks. These important skills and experience will be useful in the career path she follows.