

JUVENILE MIRANDA WAIVER

Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights:

- You have the right to remain silent.
- Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law.
- You have the right to an attorney.
- If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you before any questioning if you wish one.
- You have the right to talk to your parent(s)/guardian(s) and have them present with you during any questioning
- If you wish to communicate with an attorney, parent or guardian, all reasonable means will be provided to do so.
- You can decide at any time from this moment on to terminate the interview and exercise these rights.
- Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you? Having these rights in mind, do you wish to talk to us now?

I have read and understand fully each of my rights, and I am willing to answer questions and make a statement at this time. I do not want the advice of a parent/guardian or attorney at this time. I understand and know what I am doing . No promises or threats have been made to me.
