VII. Law Enforcement Procedures for Firearms on Campus

The University of North Alabama is a weapons free campus. The following information will guide you, as police officers, on dealing with weapon situations that may arise. Keeping in mind that every situation cannot be addressed, this is an outline/guide for the areas that can be used to cover as many situations as possible. Regardless of the situation, Section 10 of the new gun law allows you, as police officers, to act accordingly for the protection of the public. Your safety should always be at the forefront of your approach and actions.

1) Non-Students on University property, not their own: The individual in question will be advised by the officer that the University of North Alabama is a weapons free campus. The officer will ask the individual to leave the premises immediately. If the individual refuses to comply with the request to leave the premises, he/she can be placed under arrest for trespassing.

2) Students: Prior to the law, possession of weapons by students has always been prohibited by the Code of Student Conduct. This provision remains in effect. No student is allowed to have a weapon, concealed or otherwise, anywhere on campus or properties operated by the University. Students are not allowed to have a firearm in their vehicles on campus.

If you come in contact with a student that has a weapon in his/her possessions, advise the student that the University of North Alabama is a weapons free campus.

   a) Give the student an opportunity to leave the premises and only to return when not in possession of the weapon.

   b) If they cannot leave to secure the weapon off campus, the student will be given an opportunity to sign a release that UPD shall hold the weapon for safe keeping until the student has an opportunity to leave campus with the weapon.

   c) If they will not cooperate with your directions, you shall arrest that student for criminal trespassing.

3) Employees of the University: The weapons free campus includes all employees/contractors alike. The concern of employees having weapons in their vehicles is not a criminal offense but a civil issue between employee and employer. This decision will be addressed by University Administration. If you are advised by an administrator of this university that employees are not allowed to have a weapon in the vehicle, follow the guidelines that have been set forth in the above sections.
Concealment in privately-owned vehicles: At this time, the University of North Alabama does not restrict or prohibit the transportation or storage of a lawfully possessed firearm or ammunition in an employee’s privately-owned motor vehicle while parked or operated in a public or private parking area of the University if the employee satisfies all of the following:

1) The employee either:
   a) Has a valid concealed weapon permit; or
   b) If the weapon is any firearm legal for use for hunting in Alabama other than a pistol:
      i) The employee possesses a valid Alabama hunting license;
      ii) The weapon is unloaded at all times on the property;
      iii) It is during a season in which hunting is permitted by Alabama law or regulation;

2) The motor vehicle is operated or parked in a location where it is otherwise permitted to be

3) The firearm is either of the following:
   a) In a motor vehicle attended by the employee, kept from ordinary observation within the person’s motor vehicle.
   b) In a motor vehicle unattended by the employee, kept from ordinary observation and locked within a compartment, container, or in the interior of the person's privately-owned motor vehicle or in a compartment or container securely affixed to the motor vehicle.
   c) If the University believes that an employee presents a risk of harm to himself/herself or to others, the University may inquire as to whether the employee possesses a firearm in his or her private motor vehicle. If the employee does possess a firearm in his or her private motor vehicle on the property of the University, the University may make any inquiry necessary to establish that the employee is in compliance with subsection (b) of this section.

All incidents require written reports that will be filed at the University Police Department. All incidents involving students will be referred to the office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action and all employee incidents will be sent to the Office of Human Resources for further action.
