LARRY MILLER After "picking at the guitar" most of his life, Larry Miller started making a serious study of playing the guitar about 15 years ago. His love of finger style guitar and his frustration of trying to learn to play on his own led him in search of teachers to help make sense of the guitar. During this time he has studied under Jerry Miller (Guitar Teacher in Decatur, AL), Mrs. Margarita de Quesada (Classical Teacher in Decatur, AL), Craig Dobbins (Acoustic Work Shop www.craigdobbins.com/ Gadsden, AL), weekend seminar with John Knowles (Arranger and "right hand man" for Chet Atkins www.johnknowles.com/) and with Scott Todd (guitarist for Lenny Le Blanc). Having struggled to learn to play the guitar himself, Larry has refined the fundamentals of learning into a non-intimidating learning system that is unique and easy to grasp for those struggling with learning to play the guitar. He has put together the knowledge of many teachers to help new students overcome common problems and obstacles to learning to play the guitar well. For the last four years, Larry has uses his knowledge to teach students guitar and mandolin at Alabama Music in Florence Alabama.

CHEF JOHNSON OGUN is an accomplished Chef and university instructor with a strong combination of culinary experience and management skills coupled with instructional experience. He is a results-driven and highly motivated professional with exceptional leadership skills. Being knowledgeable of both front and back of the house operation in the hospitality industry, he is an excellent instructor who motivates students. As a culinary professional, Chef Ogun consistently meets or exceeds company goals and objectives.

JILL SIMPSON holds a PhD from the University of Alabama, and an MBA and BS from the University of North Alabama. Jill has taught adjunct computer software courses for 11 years at various institutions and has been employed as a full-time faculty member in the Computer Science and Information Systems Department at UNA for 2 years. Born and raised in Florence, Alabama, Jill's goal is to foster excitement about the University and the Shoals Area in new incoming students.

PAIGE STEPHENS is a graduate of the University of North Alabama and has been employed with Shoals Christian School for 11 years as a Junior High Bible teacher and the K – 12th grade Art Teacher. Mrs. Paige has taught many summer art classes for the Kennedy Douglas Center for the Arts. She is a member of the AAEA (Alabama Art Educators Association) Board Member and a member of the NAEA (National Art Educators Association). She is an established artist and teaches Art School Art Program and private lessons. Mrs. Paige loves all mediums and has advanced experience in acrylic painting, calligraphy and watercolors. Overall she has 25 years' experience in the field of art and loves to inspire, teach and encourage others to visualize and express their world through art. I am so blessed to have talents that can be shared and taught to others and honored whenever given the opportunity to do so.

BRENDA TRUITT has been teaching art classes for over 20 years. She has taught at the University of North Alabama with Continuing Education since its inception. She received her Bachelor of Studio Art from UNA in 1985. She has taught both adults and children. She has experience with drawing, watercolor, acrylic, oil, and ceramics.

DR. JASON WATSON is an assistant professor of Computer Information Systems at the University of North Alabama.
