REQUIREMENTS/ SPECIFICATIONS

The University is accepting proposals from radio companies to partner with UNA Athletics to broadcast Athletic Events for the UNA LIONS.

I. BACKGROUND

The University of North Alabama's Athletic Program takes pride in a long-standing history of success. The Lions have posted more than 60 conference championships, qualified for NCAA Playoffs more than 125 teams and won seven National Championships.

Today, in their fourth and final season of transition to the NCAA Division I level, the Lions are gearing up for future championship runs at the highest level of collegiate athletics. The Department of Athletics offers 14 varsity sports, which include football, volleyball, women's soccer, women's and men's cross country, men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis and beach volleyball. UNA boasts the second winningest collegiate football program in the state of Alabama since 1990 and the Lions led the Big South Conference in home attendance in the Lions' first season in the league. IN addition to three football national championships, the men's basketball program has claimed two national crowns and made 14 NCAA Tournament appearances. The women's basketball program enjoyed back-to-back 21-win seasons in its first two seasons on the Division I level. The Alumni Program has registered over 40,000 members and is growing annually as they become actively involved in UNA's growth and development. The Athletics program plays a large role in Alumni interest and involvement, while the school's current enrollment continues to climb. A wide broadcast of sports events strengthens the alumni pride and enhances the development of endearing fans everywhere!

II. INFORMATION REQUESTED:

Qualified Broadcast firms are encouraged to submit a comprehensive proposal offering the highest quality of service while providing the University lucrative reasons to engage in a partnership.

The goal is to enter a partnership that will benefit both the Broadcaster and UNA, while providing exceptional quality to the UNA listening audience. If possible, the University is seeking a single radio station be the home of broadcasts for football and men & women's basketball games. In addition, a weekly one-hour show making the station the Home for the University of North Alabama.

All radio broadcast companies who submit proposals will be considered to carry UNA Athletics in part or in whole.

A. Options to be considered:

- 1) Allow UNA to purchase air time to broadcast Football and Women's Basketball:
 - Football game broadcast window would include up to a one-hour pre-game show and 30-minute post-game show.

- =====
- Basketball game broadcast windows would include a 20-minute pre-game show and 30-minute post-game show for both Men & Women's games.
- 2) Allow UNA to purchase air time to broadcast a weekly on-hour show during the Academic Calendar year: August – May; time and day to be negotiated.

The options above are suggestions only, UNA is open to consider any arrangement most suited to provide the best overall support. As professional broadcasters, it is the University's expectation for the provider to present a proposal based upon its professional experience that will best suit both parties.

- B. Information should include the signal power of radio station and footprint of coverage area for both daytime and evening hours, and if the station has an active mobile application (APP).

III. TERMS

It is the University's desire to enter into an annual agreement with the option to renew each year under the same terms for up to five (5) years.
