

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS!!

The faculty and staff at the University of North Alabama congratulate you on your academic achievement and strive to ensure that the commencement ceremony will be a fitting conclusion to this phase of your education!

The commencement ceremony is a festive occasion which manifests itself in many ways including the traditional dress of the students; the faculty adorned in academic regalia; and the joy and satisfaction of accomplishment.

We want to celebrate you in recognizing and honoring all your hard work as well as those who have supported you: faculty, staff, administrators, parents, spouses and children.

GRADUATE INFORMATION

Degree candidates should arrive no later than, 5:45 p.m. for the Friday night ceremony, 8:45 a.m. for the Saturday morning ceremony and no later than 12:45 p.m. for the Saturday afternoon ceremony dressed in cap and gown.

There is a considerable amount of walking and standing for graduates on commencement day; this should be taken in to consideration when choosing shoes for the ceremony.

There will be an available room for storage of your personal items that will be locked during the ceremony. We encourage you to leave these personal items with your family.

The University is not responsible for any personal items left unattended.

Graduates only - will report to Flowers Hall, Room 303 by the designated arrival time mentioned above to pick up their name card, honor stoles if appropriate and take a posed picture before proceeding to the line-up. UNA personnel will be available to provide specific directions to the designated areas.

UNA employees will ensure that students are lined up in the correct order in a double file line for the processional onto the floor

Commencement is a ceremonious occasion honoring important educational accomplishments. Decorum and courtesy are important to you and your family, as well as, your fellow graduate and their families.

- Once seated, all participants are expected to stay until the conclusion of the ceremony which is marked by the graduate recessional.
- Adherence to the University's alcohol policy is expected.
- Cell phones and other electronic equipment are not allowed. Please leave those with your family members.
- Candidates should notify a staff member if there is a need to leave the floor during the ceremony.
- The Flowers Hall floor will be cleared at the conclusion of the ceremony. All graduates should plan to meet their guests outside of Flowers Hall.

REGALIA

Traditionally university graduates wear cap and gown for the commencement ceremony. For the first time, the University of North Alabama will introduce newly customized regalia for both our undergraduate and graduate students. This new regalia will be something reflective of our beautiful campus and elegance of what the commencement ceremony should be.

GRADUATE – Regalia and Hood
