

Annual Goals for Summer School

2011-2012

Goal 1:	Increase distance education offerings at the graduate level during summer for the College of Education
Description:	Work with the Dean of the College of Education and the Chair of Elementary Education to develop and offer a graduate program via distance learning as part of the summer program.
Budget:	0.00
University Goals Supported:	1,2,5
Strategic Goals Supported:	390
Responsibility:	Summer School Coordinator
Participation:	N/A
Results:	Thirty-three hours of graduate level coursework were offered by the College of Education during the 2012 summer sessions. This reflects an 83 percent increase in graduate hours in Education offered compared to summer 2011. The following courses were available during June term, July term, or the regular summer session: 1. ECE 604 -- Family Involve Ed Young Children 2. EED 611 -- Issues in Elementary Education 3. EED 613 -- Adv Studies in Lang Arts 4. EEX 653 -- Transition Methods in Sp Ed 5. ED 578 -- Teaching Reading in Content Areas 6. ED 601 -- Methods of educational Research (two sections) 7. EDS 704 -- Cultural Leadership 8. EDT 603 -- Curriculum Integration of Technology 9. EED 612 -- Advanced Studies in Social Studies 10. EEX 605 -- Survey of Students with Disabilities
Actions/Improvements:	Based on 2012 enrollments continued emphasis will be placed on offering programs in all areas via distance learning.
Future Actions/Improvements:	