University of NORTH ALABAMA

Dear School of the Arts Students,

During this time of uncertainty, the School of the Arts (SOTA) acts as a resource in communicating information regarding academic, event, and health developments within the Department of Visual Arts and Design, the Cinematic Arts and Theatre Program, and the Department of Music. Currently, faculty and staff are working on varied delivery methods to provide distance learning instruction. We ask that you be patient as those methods are being codified. Here are some helpful tips.

- 1) Refer to the School of the Arts Remote Learning Resource page (<https://www.una.edu/schoolofthearts/Remote%20Learning%20Resources.html>) for up-to-date information regarding reliable health information, learning resources, and online virtual tours and events.
- 2) Communicate with faculty/staff only through official University of North Alabama electronic mail services (UNA E-mail).
- 3) Continuously check social media outlets (Facebook and Instagram) for UNA School of the Arts, UNA Department of Visual Arts and Design, University of North Alabama Cinematic Arts and Theatre, and UNA Department of Music.
