

Margaret S. Odom Scholarship

The Alabama Gerontological Society (AGS) is a non-profit membership organization devoted to improving the well-being of older persons throughout Alabama. AGS brings together individuals, service providers, educators, policy makers, students, and other individuals and groups who work in the field of aging or who have an interest in and concern for Alabama's older population. A major purpose is to ensure that older individuals have the opportunity to be full participating members of society with all the rights, privileges, benefits and responsibilities that pertain.

The AGS Board of Directors is pleased to announce that we will be awarding a $1000 cash scholarship to a deserving student based on the enclosed guidelines.

The Margaret S. Odom Scholarship is available to students with a desire to work in gerontology and pursuing a degree in Social Work, Nursing or Health Administration. Applicants must be in their junior year or higher and must have at least a 3.0 GPA. Financial need will be a consideration for all applicants. All applications must be complete and postmarked or received via email by February 25th, 2013. Incomplete applications will not be considered. The scholarship will be awarded to the student at AGS' annual conference to be held April 11, 2013.

To apply for this cash scholarship, complete the application online and email to alabamagerontologicalsociety@gmail.com or download the application and mail to AGS, P.O. Box 241262, Montgomery, Alabama 36124-1262. The application will be available on our website at www.AGSinfo.org until February 25, 2013.

Should questions arise after you have reviewed the enclosed material, please contact me at AlabamaGerontologicalSociety@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
Amelia Heath, Chair
