Gigi Broadway is the Senior Administrative Assistant for the University Center Operations and Event Management. Gigi was selected as the Summer 2021 recipient of the UNA Spirit Award. This award recognizes staff who best embrace the spirit of the university. Gigi’s nomination shared, “she has a great big smile that makes people feel welcomed.” “When I think of UNA Spirit, I can’t help of think of Gigi.” “Gigi bleeds purple and gold and is proud to be a part of this Lion community.”

Jean Ann Gresham is the Health Services Specialist for University Health Services. Jean Ann was selected as a Summer 2021 recipient of the Silent Roar Award. This award recognizes the contributions of staff who foster student success, while completing their responsibilities, behind the scenes. Her nomination shared, “Jean Ann is a ‘fixer’ and if something needs completing, she gets it done.” She is “caring, kind and helpful.” “Jean Ann is deserving of the Silent Roar Award because she, although not in the spotlight, holds so many up while they shine.”

Carmen Richter is the Director of Student Counseling Services. Carmen was selected as a Summer 2021 recipient of the Silent Roar Award. This award recognizes the contributions of staff who go above and beyond the expectation of their job, without expectation of recognition. Her nomination shared, “she is a helper at heart.” “Carmen does everything she does because it’s who she is.” “She works in the shadows often and serves others because it’s her passion.”

FALL 2021 BOOK CLUB

Meeting monthly this fall, read along with UNA's 2021-22 One Book, "Grace Will Lead Us Home" by Jennifer Berry Hawes

Limited copies of the book will be provided.

For more information, and to reserve a copy of the book, please contact: Kayleigh Baker at kbaker5@una.edu or complete the survey: https://una.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eL0mlHao0SULb6u

UNA's One Book program began in the 2019-2020 academic year as a common read for all students, faculty, and staff on campus. The book is integrated as part of the First Year Experience Curriculum to support learning outcomes including diversity, open discussion, and understanding of differing viewpoints and life experiences.
