PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Responding to Students in Distress: The Division of Diversity Equity and Inclusion invites faculty and staff to attend a professional development opportunity facilitated by Student Counseling Services on September 2 at 3:30pm in Commons 330.

SAPD Book Club: The Student Affairs Professional Development Committee will hold the first book club meeting for the UNA One Book, Grace Will Lead Us Home on Friday, September 10 at 12pm in the Faculty/Staff Commons (GUC 110). If you have not yet expressed interest, you are still welcome to join!

Digital Media and Marketing: Alyson Bergner will facilitate a workshop on digital media and marketing September 15 at 11:30am. Those who RSVPed by the September 1 deadline will receive a meal.

Basic Grant Writing: The Division of Diversity Equity and Inclusion will host Dr. Kyrel Buchanan September 30 at 3:30pm in Commons 330 for a grant writing workshop.

JOIN THE STUDENT AFFAIRS PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

HOW TO JOIN: If you are interested in joining the SA PD Committee, please email sapd@una.edu by September 22, 2021. The current SA PD Committee will compile a list of those interested, gather feedback from SALT, and create a slate for VPSA approval.

COMMITMENT: Committee members will serve a two-year term from November 1-October 31, with an opportunity for reappointment. The committee meets twice a month on the second and fourth Thursday at 11am.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE: Based on the committee members ending their terms, the following positions are available (descriptions are included):

- One Senior-Level Staff: those who have supervisory responsibility for one or more functional units in the Division. Senior-level staff typically have 7+ years of experience in the field as a full-time professional.
- One Mid-Level Staff: those who have supervisory responsibility for either graduate assistants or entry-level professionals. They have a blend of time with students and time spent on administrative responsibilities. Mid-Level staff typically have 4-7 years of experience in the field as a full-time professional.
- Two Entry-Level Staff: those who have limited or no supervisory responsibility and a heavy amount of direct contact with students. Entry-level staff typically have 0-3 years of experience in the field as a full-time professional.
