

The 11th hour, of the 11th day, of the 11th month, of the 11th year—

This year Veterans Day, or Remembrance Day as it was originally called, will mark the 10th year of Post 9-11 combat. Over 6000 service members have died in these two major theaters of operation.

The Remembrance Day National Roll Call event will be held on 11-11-11. The Objective: have students from at least one school in every state read all the names of the OEF/OIF casualties with all schools pausing at 11:00 a.m. PST to observe a “minute of silence”. What a powerful message to those who are serving, to have their peers honor the sacrifices of the fallen.

If your school would like to participate email RemembranceRollCall@gmail.com for more details about how to Pledge .

There are currently 41 schools from 21 states + D.C. who have made the Pledge (see below) ... start planning your involvement now!
